

Recommended Sequence of Courses in the Fashion Design & Merchandising Department

Level 1/Entry Level (first classes in the program, may be taken in any order)

___ FASH 100	Principles of Design
___ FASH 110	Beginning Clothing Construction
___ FASH 113	Textiles
___ FASH 114	Introduction to Italian Fashion
___ FASH 118	Flat Pattern
___ FASH 123	Introduction to the Fashion Industry
___ FASH 150	History of Fashion
___ FASH 151	Fashion Merchandising
___ FASH 164	Fashion Illustration
___ FASH 196	Introduction to Theater Costuming
___ FASH 226	Visual Merchandising

After these entry-level classes, students can enroll in most of the classes offered in the department. However, the following is a good sequence though not required.

Level 2

___ FASH 115	Intermediate Clothing Construction
___ FASH 146	Designer Techniques
___ FASH 162	Advanced Flat Pattern
___ FASH 163	Pattern Grading
___ FASH 168	Fashion Draping
___ FASH 175	Advanced Illustration
___ FASH 178	Computer Pattern Grading
___ FASH 180	Computerized Pattern Design

Level 3

___ FASH 111	Techniques of Fit
___ FASH 116	Tailoring
___ FASH 169	Evening Gown Construction
___ FASH 195	Portfolio Development
___ FASH 197	Pattern Design for Historic Costuming
___ FASH 199	Costuming for Theatrical Production
___ FASH 672	Internship

Short Courses (can be taken at level 2 but level 3 may be better)

___ FASH 132	Trouser Construction
___ FASH 140	Basic Serging
___ FASH 170	French Pattern Drafting
___ FASH 171	Pants Drafting
___ FASH 172	Bustier
___ FASH 173	Lingerie Design and Construction