V. Reports

a. “Why” We Do What We Do – 2.0

Gonzalo Arrizon 2

To ground our meeting and remind us why we do antiracism and justice-centered work, an SSPC member shares their “Why” – an uplifting (or challenging) experience (small or big) working with Student Services that reminds them why they do this work.

“As we’re putting together our list of transferring students, yesterday I came across a familiar name, Joshua Jimenez, who is my cousin’s son. He started out in the Promise Program very active engineering major and is now applying for transfer so that made me very, very happy. This is just a reminder that we keep bringing our community and our families together and really making an impact. This really made me happy!”

VI. Standing Items

a. Planning and Budgeting Council Maria Huning 5

PBC was requested to provide input for the Midterm Report and the Strategic Enrollment Management Plan for ACJC.

I highly encourage everyone to provide feedback for the Midterm Report to ACCJC and the Strategic Enrollment Management Operational Plan (feedback due TODAY, 4/12)!

The Core Scheduling presentation was very interesting. If you would like to see the presentation. It can be found under 4/5 at the link below

b. Vice President of Student Services (VPSS) Updates Manuel Pérez 5

Our mural is up and in the process of being painted! Today and tomorrow are the final days for us to have community paint days. The sign up is listed and posted on the What's Happening at Cañada College as well as sent out in the Weekly Updates. Please feel free to sign up! There may be additional opportunities to paint depending on how much is finished this week.

Please pull up the email you received from Human Resources which states we have an opportunity to rethink our summer schedules. You will have the option of a 4/10 work week, working a regular work week or working a regular work week and using vacation or comp time for Fridays off. There will also be options for working one remote day from home. Also specified in the email are the three holidays we have in which we have adjusted schedules (Memorial Day, Juneteenth and the Fourth of July). Please be sure to inform your supervisor of your intent to participate in the four-day work week no later than May 12.

Student Services is heavily implicated in the Strategic Enrollment Management Operational plan and need to hear from Student Services. As of two hours ago there was no feedback from Student Services. Does that mean everyone is happy with what is in the plan?

Connect to College is coming up later this month Thursday, April 27. This is an open house opportunity for prospective students so they can understand all the ways they can connect with us at the college.

On Friday, May 12, we have a big opportunity for our High School seniors and have our single-stop registration event. If you were involved with our Super Saturday event at the end of last semester, this is similar except we're tailoring it specifically to high school seniors. For this event, we're offering to reserve and request shuttle service for our high school seniors. For example, if there are 30-40 students from Woodside and they need a bus, we'll help them with funding for the bus. As of yesterday, we have no high school counselors that have expressed interest in using our shuttle services. Please bring this service up with your high school contacts!

c. Enrollment Services Committee Update (ESC)

Wissem Bennani 5

The ESC met Friday, April 7.

The ESC and Student Services in general are working on implementing all of our forms on the CRM. Maria Lara is part of this district-wide team. They have prioritized the FASFA and Financial Aid forms but we've just found out the 24-25 FASFA is undergoing major revamping. The Team will be waiting to put the FASFA on the CRM. So rather than the Financial Aid forms the forms from Admissions and Records will be prioritized in the CRM.

The Board Policy for SB 893 was approved at the March 22 Board meeting. This new policy was approved for Fall 2023. The Summer 2023 criteria is the same as the Spring 2023 criteria. With both there are level one and level two students. ITS is working on the communication so students will know which level they are. The administrative procedure has not been finalized yet but the Board has provided guidance to proceed in addition to the tuition waiver which provides support for text books, transportation and technology.

The new website with the FAQs is being created with the new criteria. We're also working with an outside agency to work on the new enrollment ads.

d. Program Review Workgroup Updates

Wissem Bennani 5

The Program Review workgroup met on March 24. Before the Spring break we were able to provide updates and finalize the program review questions and the annual update questions, as well as, the timeline.

The Program Review 2023-2024 timeline was presented to PBC by Karen Engel and Ludmila Prisecar at the last PBC meeting.

<https://www.canadacollege.edu/programreview/index.php>

e. Instructional Planning Council (IPC) Updates

Danielle Pelletier/Jose Manzo 5

SSPC would like to begin having the notes presented during the Standing Items at each meeting. Jose Manzo is not an SSPC representative so Jose gives Max the notes he takes from PBC. Jose's happy to share those notes with SSPC for the minutes if we would like to include them.

Dean Max Hartman will help smoothing the transition getting the notes to SSPC.

We can also think about asking the Counselor who sits on SSPC to attend PBC as part of their representative requirements moving forward so they can block the PBC meetings out on their schedule.

VII. Special Presentations

a. Drop for Non-payment Presentation

Wissem Bennani & Karrie Mitchel 25

This presentation is so we can understand how, why and when students are dropped for non-payment and will provide us an overview of our current drop for non-payment processes, including any nuances with SB893 (free college).

This presentation was written by Wissem and Karrie who, unfortunately, couldn't join us today. Wissem will take any questions that can't be answered today to Karrie to help with figuring out the answers.

Rolling drop for non-payment process

- ▶ Students will essentially have 7 business days to make payment on their account, or they will be dropped from their courses.
- ▶ If a student registers for classes with less than 7 business days until the term begins, they will have less than 7 business days to pay. I.e. it might be only 2 business days depending on the calendar dates.
- ▶ During the dropping period, students may be dropped for a balance of 1$ or more.

Can we drop students after the start of the semester?

- ▶ Title V prevents colleges from dropping students for non-payment after the course had begun; hence why when students add courses after the start of the term, they are not dropped from their courses.
- ▶ Students with outstanding balances (50$ or more) are given a hold which prevents them from registering for the next term until it is paid in full.
- ▶ Veterans are not given holds if they have a balance.

Exempt from Drop for Non-payment

- ▶ Students who sign up for the payment plan via WebSMART, will not be dropped
- ▶ Students who apply for financial aid (www.fafsa.gov or www.caldreamact.org as eligible) at least five days prior to registering for classes, or complete the CCPG Fee Waiver via WebSMART
- ▶ First time international students
- ▶ Middle College Students
- ▶ Students enrolled in an exempt coded class, i.e. no fees on the course
- ▶ Those with 3rd Party payers
- ▶ Chapter 33 veterans

Free College (SB 893) and Drop for Non-Payment?

Free College (SB 893) may not cover all college associated fees. Students will be dropped if they have any outstanding fees unless they have a Financial Aid application on file Or have one of the above listed exemptions.

Questions and Answers:

Question: Who determines who gets dropped? Who sets the guidelines? For example why is a first time international student not dropped but a first time ESL student is dropped? In this time of equity, how are these decisions made regarding who gets dropped and who the exceptions are?

Answer: These are policy level decisions. Some of the decisions are driven by regulations.

Question: What are the things currently in place to warn students of pending drops? Are their text messages or phone calls?

Answer: The CRM will send multiple notifications reminding students to pay their balance via email (even daily) but if a student doesn't look at their student email, they won't see their notification. Soon the CRM will be sending out text messages to students to be sure they see the notification.

Question: If a student is covered by free college and has all their tuition paid except the $17.00 for associated fees which is on their balance at the time of their first registration and they go in and add another course, we know the tuition will be paid but will it start the clock on the $17.00 fees that still need to be paid?

Answer: The $17.00 fee is only once but you will be dropped after 7 days if it's not paid. The clock does not restart if another class is added.

Question: Who do we go to advocate for inquiries or changes to our policy and procedures?

Answer: The District route would include going to ESC first to request changes. They ESC will make a recommendation to the VP Council and then it would be taken to the Chancellor's Cabinet. The second way would be to go from IPC or SSPC where it's discussed, reviewed and decided on and then to PBC as a recommendation before it would go to the President's Office. The President, if approved, would forward it to the Chancellor's Cabinet. If the Chancellor's Cabinet is in agreement, it would then go to the Governance Council or directly to the Chancellor for the Board to consider.

Danielle Pelletier motions to add 7 minutes to this presentation

Maria Lara seconds the motion

Approved unanimously by all those in attendance

Question: It's not clear how students make payments to the Nelnet payment plan. Do they need to put in a credit card? Sometimes payments aren't made. Are they supposed to be automatic payments? What happens if the credit card expires and there are no funds available?

Answer: Wissem will check with Bernata Slater to answer the question.

Question: Regarding the drop for non-payment can we create a discussion where we have ESC and all applicable players together. Include PRIE because we're looking for data in order to look to see where we might find solutions. We could identify the problems, i.e. how many students have been dropped, how many re-enrolled, what percentage of those are fraudulent, and for those that did or did not re-enroll what was the frustration level? How do we go forward with this and then take it to the place we feel we can move forward with a recommendation to PBC?

Answer: Let's continue to use the canvpss@smccd.edu to collect these different types of questions specifically that have to do with enrollment fraud or financial aid fraud.

If the students register with Nelnet even if they don't make a payment, they will not be dropped from their classes. If they don't pay, they won't be able to register for the following semester.

SSPC will request our Cañada Cashier's, Mary or Ludmila to come answer the question of how the Nelnet Payment plan works and if they don't have the information, we'll ask Bernata to come to the SSPC meeting.

Answer: Mario, (Cañada Cashier) can answer the question what happens if the credit card expires and there are no funds available? If the student has a payment plan and the credit card did not go through, there is a fee of $10 or $20 and Nelnet will try again. If it happens a second time, Nelnet cancels the payment plan and the student needs to start paying at the Cashier's Office.

Answer: Mario answers the question what happens if the credit card expires within the middle of the payment plan. Nelnet is good about notifying students but if the students don't reply or place a new credit card, the payment plan will be cancelled. The problem is students not looking at their college email and missing the notification. Mario will research how many times Nelnet tries to contact students before the payment plan is cancelled.

The payment plan information below:

One of the biggest frustrations for students is when they are dropped for non-payment try to sign back up for the dropped classes and the classes are full, they want staff in Admissions & Records to get them into the classes but there is nothing A&R can do to help.

Since COVID there is a large problem with admissions and financial aid fraud in community colleges state-wide. Dean Bennani reports the College's fraud report monthly to the State Chancellor's Office. Most students who have had their classes dropped do get back into their classes but dropping students for non-payment is the best way to keep the fraudulent students away. Most students who don't try to get back into their dropped classes or don't pay their balance are most likely fraudulent students.

Planning and Budgeting Council is interested in hearing this presentation as an FYI for information only and would like to hear if SSPC has a particular recommendation. SSPC has three ESC representatives on its council and these representatives can take this back to ESC and ask to have the policy looked at again. ESC might look at the policy and say there is nothing we can do about it right now but they may decide to look at it again with our recommendations.

Max Hartman moves to add 3 more minutes to this discussion

Maria Lara seconds the motion

Approved unanimously by all those in attendance

Based on this last piece of information shared Max is not comfortable moving a recommendation forward to PBC to increase the limit for drop for non-payment to above the $17.00 fee. Once we have more information, we can discuss the possibilities of raising the limit. Before this presentation goes to PBC is it possible to present the data showing the drops and re-enrollments to show how the drop for non-payment looks in context. Is there data that can be shared that says that the students that were dropped that didn't re-enroll we suspect are not "real" students? This is compelling information and not really hurting our students but at the same time using it as a check and balance which is protecting our institution from fraud. This data would be important information to consider when planning on a recommendation to forward to PBC.

Comment: Considering barriers, dropping for non-payment is another. This can be good if it stops fraud; however, what about students who are real? Frustration isn't measured as data.

Nest Steps:

If you have additional questions or information or clarity, please send them to canvpss@smccd.edu by next Wednesday, April 19.

We will collect everything and at the April 26 or May 10 SSPC meeting we will another presentation or just review the new data/information.

We will also let PBC know that we had this presentation and we may or may not have a recommendation moving forward.

Manuel and Michiko will download this document at the link above and they will have a meeting with PRIE to see if there is anyone that needs to have one-on-one feedback to particular groups or departments.

Question: Where can we find the presentation from Karen Engel that was recorded during our SSPC meeting?

Answer: Karen Engel's presentation on SAOs

Please send any additional questions to canvpss@smccd.edu by next Wednesday, 4/19/23.

Goal: Updating SAOs by Spring Break (We also acknowledge that this time has been very intense with power outages and storms and we'll plan on utilizing time at the next SSPC for peer-review).

i. Next SSPC Meeting – April 26, 2023

Next Steps:

Request our Cashier's Leads or Mary or Ludmila to answer additional questions regarding non-payment. Mario will research more information to answer these questions. If they can't answer, ask Bernata. (Did Mario's link answer the questions? <https://mycollegepaymentplan.com/canada/>)

Look at questions that have been sent to canvps to see if we need to bring any additional people to SSPC
