- Chris and Andrea were nominated. Both accepted their nominations.
- Chris wants to move up in the ASCC hierarchy and is ready to commit more of his time, and believes this is an interesting opportunity. He believes he can get people closer by being VP.

- Andrea believes she can handle class, commitments, and good grades. She did well this past semester. She knows how to manage her time with homework and applications. She can make the meetings on Wednesdays and the third Wednesday of the month, and Eboard meetings.

- Re: Experience:

- Chris spoke of how he participated in last year's Spirit Thursdays. He showed how much responsibility and commitment he could fulfill.

- Andrea doesn't necessarily have experience. As a senator, she likes to participate in events and she talks to people like Linda, our prior President. She thinks she might be ready because she knows how to manage her time and be responsible.

- Chris' vision for innerclub council: He believes he can work and get people together. Get them to meet new people and bond.

- Chris also was a part of the Country Club and past volunteer. He is working on cutting down his work hours and to make time.

- Andrea was a Spanish tutor last semester. She has participated in volunteer work at San Mateo County's domestic violence, as well a local healing church.

Lexie motions to appoint Chris as VP. Seconded by Doris.

- Discussion: Pros and Cons regarding both candidates.

- Vote: 5 in favor; 4 opposed; 1 abstentions. Motion dies.

- Discussion regarding candidates: What would they do if President were to step down?

- o - Chris understands parliamentary procedures. He knows it's a huge commitment. He thinks he'll be able to fulfill those obligations. He has only missed one meeting thus far. He enjoys being here. He thinks he can be president. Last semester he had two jobs which prevented him from bonding with new people. Now, he can meet people a lot better.

- o - Andrea thinks she can commit to the responsibilities. She can be responsible enough to take that position.

 Omar motions to appoint Andrea as VP. Seconded by Geovanna.

- Vote: 3 in favor; 6 opposed; 3 abstentions. Motion fails.
